

NOTICE OF EVENING PRESENTATION – Tue MARCH 25, 2014, 7pm

Vancity Savings Credit Union Conference Room

5064 Kingsway, Burnaby, BC V5H2E7

TOPIC: HOLISTIC ENGINEERING

The concept of engineering that includes all aspects and all influences that affect the outcome of an engineering process.

Presenter: Alan Kay MICE CE PEng

Alan reviews the philosophy and concept of Holistic Engineering including the educational and development aspects, and the practical tools required to implement the methodology. Although engineering practice has, by necessity, included external issues such as environmental and community impacts, in this evolving world a new kind of engineer is needed. One who can think broadly across disciplines and consider the human dimensions that are at the heart of every engineering challenge.

Presenter's bio and vision:

Alan Kay's background has included an eclectic array of experience from military engineering through civil design, construction, forensics, training and development, process and knowledge management.
